Marjorie

I'll never let you down

I'm on a mission

And I'm doing the best I can

Head stuck to the window

A packet of cigarettes

I'm waiting for the man

He went for a few pints with his friends

Cause we seem to be making

We seem to be making

We seem to be making the same mistakes

We seem to be making

We seem to be making

We seem to be making the same mistakes

Marjorie

I will never let you down

I'm still on this mission

And I'll do all my best

All I can

Head stuck to the curtains

Second packet of cigarettes

I'm waiting for the day

And for the man to come home

Cause we seem to be making

We seem to be making

We seem to be making the same mistakes

We seem to be making

We seem to be making

We seem to be making the same mistakes

We seem to be making

We seem to be making

We seem to be making the same mistakes

We seem to be making

We seem to be making

We seem to be making the same mistakes
